Advanced storage and logistic solutions

In the past, warehousing racks used to be simple constructions, small in size and low in height. Fortunately, that's ancient history. Today, we want to make the most of the storage space we've got. Using the most advanced logistic solutions. Moreover, the logistic costs (and hence the total storage costs) should be kept down to a minimum.

Note, being part of the Constructor Group AS we are also represented under the brands Dexion, Bruynzeel and Constructor.
